BEARING FRUIT

I was very touched after reading the Upper Room for November 20th. It quoted the Scripture from John 16, "You did not choose me, but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name."

When I was 4 ½ years old, our neighbors asked my parents if they could take me to Sunday School at the Methodist Church. My Father had never belonged to a Church and my mother was a member of the Christian Church but didn't attend.

They allowed me to be taken to Sunday School and when this family moved my mother would still take me so I could go to Sunday School, but didn't attend herself. I continued to be active in the Church attending weekly MYF meetings and as a teen singing in the Choir.

At some point my mother transferred her membership and when I was 15 my father had a very serious heart attack. During his recovery he also became a member of that Methodist Church in Madison, Kansas.

Little did I know that at 4 ½ years old I was chosen to bear fruit...my parents eventually being involved in the Methodist Church.

What ways were you chosen to bear fruit?
 - Betty Patrick

Thank you volunteers for all that you do. Whether it is cooking or greeting, we are very appreciative of your dedication to serve Trinity.
